CRAIG TRIBAL ASSOCIATION HOLDS A CEREMONY TO HONOR THE TREE THEY HAVE SELECTED TO BE CARVED INTO A TOTEM POLE FOR CRAIG COMMUNITY

Shaan Seet expresses our support and stands by our Tribe with pride and honor for the work they are doing. Craig Tribal Association has decided to select a tree that will be carved into a totem pole this spring. The lead carver on this project will be internationally acclaimed Haida artist Reg Davidson. Through their partnership with the Forest Service, Craig Tribe was able to access and harvest the perfect cedar tree. On Friday, January 12th, they held a small private ceremony to honor the sacred tree that will breathe cultural and indigenous life back into our community.
